- 3. The units of this project are numbered 25 to 68, inclusive. A unit consists of all those elements bearing an identical number designation. Whenever reference is made to any of said units, it shall be construed that reference is made to the unit as a whole and to each and all of its component elements. The lateral boundaries of each such unit are the interior surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors, roofs, windows, and doors. The L.E (lower elevation) of each such unit is the interior surface of the floor thereof, and the U.E. (upper elevation) of each such unit is the interior surface of the ceiling thereof. Each such unit includes the surfaces so described, the respective portions of the building and improvements lying within said boundaries and the airspace so encompassed.
- 4. This plan and the dimensions shown hereon are intended to conform to Civil Code Section 1351 which requires diagrammatic floor plans of the building built or to be built thereon in sufficient detail to identify each unit, its relative location, and approximate dimensions. The dimensions shown hereon are not intended to be sufficiently accurate to use for computation of floor area or airspace volumes in any or all of the units.
- 5. These diagrammatic floor plans intentionally omit detailed information of internal partitions within individual units. Likewise, such details as protrusions such as vents, beams, columns, window casings, and other such features are not intended to be reflected on these plans.
- 6. The vertical limits of all airspaces are horizontal planes having elevations shown as L.E. and U.E. on the respective portions thereof. For purposes hereof, "L.E." means lower elevation and "U.E." means upper elevations.
